Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

See list of Caesars Entertainment companies in the "Other important information" section below.

What we do

How does Caesars protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. To learn more about security at Caesars, please visit caesars.com/privacy.html.

How does Caesars collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or provide account information
- Give us your contact information or show your driver's licence
- Give us income information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choice will apply to everyone on your account unless you tell us otherwise.

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non financial companies.

- Nonaffiliates that we share with may include third party promotional or loyalty programs, an entity purchasing one of our owned or operated properties, or other related businesses.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Our joint marketing partners may include credit card companies.
